

Stephen Wong Chun Hei

B.1986

Based in Hong Kong

Introduction

Landscape is always the keyword in Wong's paintings. His early works sourced from the landscape scenes of video games, in order to highlight the visual impact from the virtual world. In recent years, Wong keeps hiking to the natural areas of Hong Kong and paints en plein air. Based on the sketches, memories and by adding his own imagination, the canvas works show the sense of travelling and reveal the relationship between mankind and the nature.
